

IN RECOGNITION OF THE 150TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE BOROUGH OF SHENANDOAH

HON. MATT CARTWRIGHT

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 7, 2016

Mr. CARTWRIGHT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the Borough of Shenandoah, which celebrated its 150th anniversary on August 27, 2016. Shenandoah is located in Schuylkill County, Pennsylvania.

The area that became Shenandoah was first settled in 1835 by Peter Kehley, who developed the land for farming. The settlement was maintained for two decades. After anthracite coal was discovered, the land was sold to the Philadelphia Land Company. Planning for the town began under Peter Schaeffer in 1862.

Shenandoah was officially incorporated on January 16, 1866. Situated in the Middle Western Coal Field, the area around Shenandoah contained rich deposits of anthracite. As mining got under way, the borough's population grew in response to the increased demand for labor. Shenandoah became a hub for business, attracting depots for three major railroad companies to ship coal to New York and Philadelphia. Immigrants came first from Wales, Ireland, and Germany. Later, immigrants from Lithuania, Poland, Ukraine and Slovakia arrived. With each new wave of immigrants, parochial schools and places of worship arose unique to their own ethnic group. By the 1920s, Shenandoah had developed a garment industry with 15 large factories at the peak of clothing production.

Today, Shenandoah is experiencing a revitalization. People are moving into the region, some in retirement and many to raise their families. Houses are being restored, businesses are being opened. Shenandoah is now home to popular brands such as Mrs. T's Pierogies, Lee's Oriental Foods, Kowalonek's Kielbasy Shop, Lucky's, and Capitol's Kielbasy.

It is an honor to recognize Shenandoah on its sesquicentennial. I am proud to represent a community so rich in history. May the people of Shenandoah be proud of their past and look forward to a bright future as they celebrate the city's 150th anniversary.

Wednesday, September 7, 2016

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Chief Warrant Officer Chad Adams upon his retirement from 28 years of honorable service to the United States Army, the Kentucky National Guard, the United States Coast Guard, and this great nation.

Adams currently serves as the Coast Guard Food Service Program Manager within the Office of Work-Life, Health, Safety, and Work-Life Directorate at Coast Guard Headquarters (Commandant CG-1111). In this capacity, he is responsible for providing strategic policy and support to the entire $175M Food Service enterprise, consisting of 1,200 Food Service Specialist (FS) members and over 370 Coast Guard Dining Facilities worldwide. The Food Service Program office is the central authority responsible for the overall technical and administrative management policy, planning, and subsistence requirements to ensure service-wide mission success.

Upon graduation from Shelby County High School in May 1988, Chief Warrant Officer Adams served with the U.S. Army in the 82nd Airborne Division during Operations Just Cause (Panama) and Desert Shield/Storm as a paratrooper in the Infantry. After being released from the Army, and later the Kentucky National Guard, he enlisted into the Coast Guard in March 1994 and graduated boot camp as the basic training honor graduate for Company E-144. His first assignment was CGC WHITE PINE out of Mobile, AL where he decided to become a Subsistence Specialist (SS) after only six months aboard mess cooking. He graduated SS "A" school as an SS3 in 1995 and was assigned to the CGC MADRONA in Charleston, SC. As the duty cook, he advanced to SS2 and fleeted-up into the Jack of the Dust position, responsible for developing menus and ordering supplies to feed a crew of 50 personnel. He also took over as the Food Service Officer (FSO) when the FS1 was unable to get underway. On his last day aboard the cutter, he advanced to FS1 and reported to isolated duty at LORAN Station St. Paul Island, AK where he served as FSO and was awarded runner-up for galley of the year small ashore for the entire Coast Guard. After one year in isolation, he was selected to become a Company Commander (Drill Instructor) at Cape May, NJ. He trained over 1,500 recruits and advanced to Chief Petty Officer (E-7) during this tour. He also piloted one of the first training sessions with Coast Guard Academy cadets for swab summer in 2001, where he and another Company

Commander indoctrinated 100 academy cadets from the Class of 2003. Chief Adams transferred to TRACEN Petaluma, CA in 2002 and took over as Chief of the Watch for FS "A" School, running one of the largest galleys in the Coast Guard. He led a team of three other FSs to re-open the upper galley which had been dormant for over a decade. He was promoted to Chief Warrant Officer in 2005 and transferred to ISC NOLA six weeks before Hurricane Katrina made land fall and flooded his home. In 2006, he graduated from Chief Warrant Officer professional development at the Coast Guard Academy in New London, CT, where he was selected by his peers as the Distinguished Officer of his class. His duties included assisting the Comptroller and Logistics Branch Chief in providing support to all lower 8th Coast Guard District units. He was the D8 IMT Logistics Chief during Hurricanes Gustav and Ike and the 2008 New Orleans oil spill. He was selected to become the FS Assignment Officer in 2010, executing assignments (orders) for hundreds of FSs including the White House, DHS Secretary's Mess, Commandant and Flag Officer Special Command Aides, Instructor, and FSO positions and operational units. In 2012, he was invited to the White House to help cook for the United Kingdom State Dinner and Greek Independence Day Dinner and has assisted the White House chefs for many events since. In July 2014, he was assigned to his current position at CG-1111. In September 2016, he will assume the duties as the new Subsistence Program Manager as a civil service employee.
